

AFTERNOON OF BUSH POETRY

Poets and lovers of Bush Poetry will gather at the Raleigh Hall, Walter Street, Raleigh (opposite the Raleigh Winery) on Saturday 1st September from 1.00 p.m. to 4.30 p.m.

This informal gathering has proven to be a very enjoyable afternoon for followers of Bush Poetry, and a great opportunity for experienced, and new poets alike, to share their verse whether it be original or favourites written by the old masters. Poetry may be recited or read, and children are particularly welcome to present their poetry.

Follow the Raleigh Winery signs displayed on the highway, and the hall is directly opposite the Winery.

Admission is free and a country style afternoon tea is provided.

For any queries contact Ed Parmenter 66523716 or email coffsmixture@hotmail.com