Lilliput is an intimate workshop/concert/session venue in the pre-school building beyond the swimming pool at the top of Panmure Street. It also has a very pleasant and shady garden area with a range of coffees and other beverages plus cakes, biscuits, muffins etc. on offer from Castlemaine's Cappuccino Cart.

The Anglican Church straight across Panmure Street from the Troubadour will be a totally acoustic venue (no P.A.) for a selection of intimate concerts. The Crown Hotel is in the main street, The Dig Café is across the road from the hotel and the Uniting Church is also in the main street at the Castlemaine end of town, across the road from the Police Station and the Post Office (There will be a special 'soul music' concert there at 9.30 on Sunday morning). The Railway Hotel is about 1 km. from town, on the Creswick & Ballarat road, near the Racecourse.
