Fifty-Fourth Bronze Swagman Award (2025) – Winners Announcement and Thanks!

Thank you to all our entrants in the 54th Bronze Swagman Award. There were 146 entries in this year's competition. The judges were greatly impressed with the variety and quality of all the new poems written for the competition.

Winton Business & Tourism Assoc Inc and the Bronze Swagman Committee are thrilled to congratulate the following recipients of the 2025 Bronze Swagman Award:

- Winner – David Judge, Bendigo, Vic
- Runner-Up – Tom McIlveen, Port Macquarie, NSW
- Third Prize – Jean O'Connell Memorial Award – Terrence Piggott, Lymwood, WA
- Highly Commended – Helen Harvey, Worrigee, NSW
- The Tim Borthwick Award – Ken Scanlan, Rangeville, Qld

Congratulations!

Best Wishes from
Jo Volz
Winton Poetry Awards Coordinator
Bronze Swagman Committee
An Initiative of Winton Business & Tourism Association